Kids Go Free this Half Term!

Looking for something to do with the family this half term? Children aged 15 and under can visit both the King Richard III Visitor Centre and Jewry Wall Museum for FREE when accompanied by a paying adult.

There's lots for families to enjoy at both attractions, including FREE family trails to help children explore and discover more as they visit. At Jewry Wall Museum, families can also get creative with our Mosaic Making Sessions, running throughout half term for just £4 per session. Children can make their own Roman-inspired mosaic to take home.

From discovering the story of England's most famous medieval king to stepping into Roman Leicester, there's plenty to keep the whole family entertained.

Kids Go Free runs until 31 October 2026, with up to 3 children aged 15 and under free per paying adult.

And if you think Jewry Wall is still "just a wall" – think again! The newly transformed museum brings Roman Leicester to life with immersive displays, fascinating artefacts, a spectacular Roman wall and plenty for children to discover.
